

Livingston County Entrepreneurship Week Competition Sponsor Opportunity

What will you be sponsoring: Hartland DECA is holding an entrepreneurial pitch competition as well as an entrepreneurial fair that allows high school students from across Livingston County to pitch an idea for a product or service that could benefit their community and to learn the skills needed to be successful entrepreneurs.

When: Wednesday, November 14th, from 6:00 - 8:30 pm.

Where: Hartland High School, 10635 Dunham Rd, Hartland, MI 48353

Benefit to sponsors: Attendees from all over Livingston County will be given a program with the sponsors' names throughout. If you sponsor gold level, we will name an event section after your company and your logo will be displayed on a banner. You will also have booth space and your name printed in the program. If you sponsor at the silver level then you will be able to meet with students from all over Livingston County to discuss your business and the opportunities the participants can have in entrepreneurship. Pictures will be taken and put on Hartland DECA's Facebook page and other Hartland High School social media sites.
